Welcome!

Welcome to the beginning of the 42nd Season of the Nebraska Wind Symphony! Oh, what a summer we had! The FIRST-ever Community Band Festival drew 8 area bands to Turner Park near downtown Omaha, including the Glenwood Iowa Community Band, the Iowa Western Community Band, the First NE Volunteers Brass Band, the Omaha Symphonic Winds, the Papillion Area Concert Band, the Nebraska Wind Symphony Swingtones, the Offutt Brass, and of course, the Nebraska Wind Symphony. The heavens opened up with a huge storm just as the massed bands finished Sousa's "Stars & Stripes Forever," but what a day! Thank you to all the volunteers, the musicians, band directors and all the corporate sponsors.

Director Larry MacTaggart

Larry MacTaggart is a Senior Human Resources Coordinator at Leo A. Daly, an architecture, engineering, and design firm headquartered in Omaha. In this position, he provides a full array of human resources support to over 700 employees in offices around the world.

MacTaggart is a graduate of the University of Arkansas (BME-1981) and the University of Nebraska (MM-1983). He was director of instrumental music in the Fairbury (Nebraska) public school system from 1983 to 1985. He enlisted in the Air Force in September 1985 and served with The United States Air Force Strategic Air Command Band, (later, the Heartland of America Band) at Offutt AFB. He was reassigned to The United States Air Force Band in Washington, D.C., in 1997 serving as a staff music arranger. In 2000, he was named Chief Music Arranger and Production Manager, a position he held until 2007 when he transferred to the Pentagon to assume duties as the senior Human Resources program manager for all Air Force Bands. In this position, he served as principal advisor to the Air Force Director of Public Affairs on personnel, recruiting, deployment, training, and quality of life issues for all Air Force bands. In 2009, MacTaggart transferred to the Headquarters, Pacific Air Forces at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii, where he served as Regional Human Resources Manager for the Air Force Bands of the Pacific. MacTaggart retired from the Air Force in October of 2012 and worked as a Human Resources Generalist for Berkshire Hathaway Media Group and The Omaha World-Herald. He is married to the former Jill Divis of Brainard, Nebraska; they have one daughter, Mallory.

Associate Director Keith Michael Davis

Keith Davis is a native of Kansas City, Missouri, and has made Omaha his home since 1991. He received his Bachelor of Music in Composition (1988) and Master of Music in Horn Performance (1990) from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music. He has composed music for many instrumental ensembles, but has written mainly for symphonic and concert bands. His commissioned works include "A Western Plains Overture," "Native Hunters," "delicate survivors of life's mighty storms" and "Bastion of Freedom." He has also made special arrangements for the Wind Symphony, including a transcription of Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite," an amazing arrangement of "Amazing Grace" for band and bagpipes and several holiday selections for our guest vocalists. Keith has been a playing member of the Nebraska Wind Symphony since 1992 and serves as Music Librarian. Keith has frequently directs the Nebraska Wind Symphony for the "Making Spirits Bright" concert on Thanksgiving Day at the Holland Performing Arts Center downtown. He is also a playing member with Orchestra Omaha and the Omaha Symphonic Winds. Keith lives in Gretna with his wife, oboist Deanna Davis, and their menagerie.

Mike Kelly, Guest Emcee

Our guest emcee today is Mike Kelly, newly retired Omaha World-Herald columnist. Coming to Omaha from Cincinnati, Mike started at the paper in 1970, covering many different beats and serving as sports editor before becoming a several-times weekly columnist. Over the years he has been the emcee for many different events in town, and, starting with the Omaha Press Club Show, has sung and danced on many stages. Johnny Cash, Elvis, Ray Charles and many more have crept into his performances. Lately, with the encouragement of some great vocal coaches, Mike has been singing in various venues and enjoying a new style: his own! Mike and his wife, Barb, have been married for 47 years, with four adult children and ten grandchildren. Count'em: TEN!

Joshua Kearney, Guest Conductor

Joshua Kearney is Director of Athletic Bands at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, where he is responsible for all aspects of the athletic band program, teaches courses in music education and conducting, and directs the University Band. A native of Tennessee, Kearney served as a teacher in the public schools south of Nashville. He has worked as an adjudicator and/or guest conductor for bands of all levels, and he has given clinic presentations across the region—most notably at the 2015 Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago and at the 2018 North Central Division conference of the College Band Directors National Association.

As an advocate of new music, Kearney regularly works with composers in the creation and performance of new works for winds. In 2014, he was honored by the National Band Association as one of three young conductors selected to conduct the “President’s Own” United States Marine Band as part of the semiannual Young Conductor/Young Composer Mentor Project, where he worked alongside composer Anthony O’Toole. His direct efforts have contributed to new works by Donald Grantham, Steven Bryant, Joe Krycia, and Anthony O’Toole.

Dr. Kearney is an active editor and arranger, having provided music for the UNO Athletic Bands, the Spartan Marching Band of Michigan State University, the UNO Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the Columbus State University Wind Ensemble and Trombone Choir, and the Springer Opera House in Georgia. Kearney’s critical edition of Emil Hartmann’s Serenade for Winds (Op. 43) was published in 2017 by Boosey & Hawkes in their acclaimed Windependence Chamber Music series.

Kearney earned Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from Columbus State University (GA) and a Doctor of Musical Arts in Wind Conducting from Michigan State University. He holds affiliations with the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association, Nebraska Music Educators Association, National Association for Music Education, College Music Society, and the College Band Directors National Association.

Support the NWS Memorial Scholarship Fund

The NWS Memorial Scholarship was created in the spring of 2007 to honor past playing members. The award provides financial assistance and encourages continued performance in a college/university band ensemble, which we hope leads to involvement in a band after college.

Consider making a gift of any amount to the NWS Memorial Scholarship Fund to honor an existing playing member or in memory of an NWS member, someone who enjoyed NWS concerts, or simply loved concert band music. Because of increased gifts this past year, we were able to increase the scholarship award from $500 to $1,000.

Your generous support will allow us to continue to grow the scholarship amount to better serve future recipients. Thank you for supporting instrumental music through your financial gifts to NWS.

Where are they now? Here is an update on two of our past NWS Scholarship recipients.

Sean Lockard, euphonium, 2011 - Sean was the fourth scholarship winner and our initial concerto soloist. He is currently living in Omaha and is the Director of Bands at Omaha South High Magnet School. Sean plays euphonium in the Omaha Symphonic Winds. Sean says "The fact that I get to wake up every day and teach music is very special to me. I also enjoy having the ability to continue playing my instrument by being part of a community wind ensemble."

Tate Rittenberger, trombone, 2012 - Tate obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Performance from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a major in Trombone Music Performance and minors in Music Technology and Business. He is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Business Administration and looks forward to a position in the music business industry. Tate says, "I owe a lot to my teachers and generous supporters like the Nebraska Wind Symphony for enabling me to reach this point."

Music by John Stafford Smith; (Arrangement Dept. of Defense, 1997)

*Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

What IS the Nebraska Wind Symphony?

In September, 1977, Darwyn “Tony” Snyder, right, organized a group of 70 adult musicians and the Nebraska Wind Symphony, Omaha’s Community Concert Band, was born. Tony and others had long recognized the need for a performance outlet for those who had spent years in high school and college band programs and would enjoy and support an organized group with which to play. We celebrate the vision of these founding members whose foresight resulted in establishing the Nebraska Wind Symphony!

The Nebraska Wind Symphony is an adult community band of over 75 adults from a wide variety of vocational backgrounds. Each concert season, the NWS performs three formal concerts plus other concerts in a variety of venues, including two free summer outdoor concerts and the “Making Spirits Bright” Holiday concert on Thanksgiving Night at the Holland Center. The Nebraska Wind Symphony reaches out to young musicians, offering an annual scholarship and inviting area middle-school “All-Stars” to perform with us each year. Check us out at www.nebraskawindsymphony.com, on Instagram and on Facebook.

From our big production to yours,
