Welcome!

... and THANK YOU for coming to today's concert, a celebration of women – their talents, their skills, their devotion. Most of today's selections are written by women, and four talented local female conductors will be guests on our podium. KMTV's Jennifer Griswold is our emcee, and the Nebraska Wind Symphony's own Analynn Fassler will amaze you with her skill on the marimba. Analynn is playing a piece by our director, Larry MacTaggart, who is also a fine composer. Please check out the rest of this program and take it home to remind you of our summer and 2019-2020 schedules. HUGE thanks to our host, Dr. Michelle Bluford, and her students here at Elkhorn South High School!

Friends,

Thank you so much for joining us for today's concert. All of us in the Nebraska Wind Symphony truly appreciate your support not only today but throughout the long and colorful history of our group. Serving as Music Director of this group is truly a great honor; however, I enjoy composing and arranging music equally as much. I believe it will always be in my blood. With that, I plan to step away from the NWS for a one-year sabbatical to focus on writing not only for this group but other groups as well. I am very proud to announce that Dr. Josh Kearney, Director of Athletic Bands at UNO, will be assuming the role of Music Director. You already met him on our October 2018 concert, and I have absolutely no doubt that under his masterful hand wonderful things are in store for our group and you, our audience.

*Thank you for your continued support of Omaha's Community Concert Band,
The Nebraska Wind Symphony.*

Respectfully,

Director Larry MacTaggart

Larry MacTaggart is a Senior Human Resources Coordinator at Leo A. Daly, an architecture, engineering, and design firm headquartered in Omaha. In this position, he provides a full array of human resources support to over 700 employees in offices around the world.

MacTaggart is a graduate of the University of Arkansas (BME-1981) and the University of Nebraska (MM-1983). He was director of instrumental music in the Fairbury (Nebraska) public school system from 1983 to 1985. He enlisted in the Air Force in September 1985 and served with The United States Air Force Strategic Air Command Band, (later, the Heartland of America Band) at Offutt AFB. He was reassigned to The United States Air Force Band in Washington, D.C., in 1997, serving as a staff music arranger. In 2000, he was named Chief Music Arranger and Production Manager, a position he held until 2007 when he transferred to the Pentagon to assume duties as the senior Human Resources program manager for all Air Force Bands. In this position, he served as principal advisor to the Air Force Director of Public Affairs on personnel, recruiting, deployment, training, and quality of life issues for all Air Force bands. In 2009, MacTaggart transferred to the Headquarters, Pacific Air Forces at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii, where he served as Regional Human Resources Manager for the Air Force Bands of the Pacific. MacTaggart retired from the Air Force in October of 2012 and worked as a Human Resources Generalist for Berkshire Hathaway Media Group and The Omaha World-Herald. He is married to the former Jill Divis of Brainard, Nebraska; they have one daughter, Mallory.

Visiting Director Dr. Josh Kearney

Dear Supporters & Patrons of the Nebraska Wind Symphony:

I am honored to take the helm of the Nebraska Wind Symphony for the 2019-2020 season during Music Director Larry MacTaggart's well-earned sabbatical. I will do my best to maintain the trajectory of the NWS, programming an exhilarating and diverse repertoire, collaborating with some of the country's best and brightest musical talents, and continuing to strengthen the organization's community and educational outreach programs.

Since my arrival in Omaha, I have been an ardent supporter of the Nebraska Wind Symphony. I am always amazed at the high level of musicianship of NWS performances. As a guest conductor last fall, I had the pleasure of working with the NWS on Eric Whitacre's "October." In rehearsals, the musicians were welcoming, collegial, excited, and willing to take musical risks — the concert was no different. The ensemble performed with grace, sensitivity, and nuance. It was thrilling. I look forward to sharing many such moments during the upcoming season of Omaha's Community Concert Band.

Joshua Kearney, D.M.A.
Visiting Music Director

Guest Conductor Michelle Bluford

Dr. Michelle Bluford, Director of Instrumental Music at Elkhorn South High School, is in her 19th year in the Elkhorn Public School and 31st year as a music teacher, including service at Benson High School and Ponca Public Schools. She received her Bachelor of Music Education from Morningside College and her Masters in Music Education and Doctorate in Ethic Studies from Covington Theological Seminary. Michelle is a clinician and adjudicator and staff member of the 402 Indoor Drumline. She is a staff member of the Nebraska Ambassadors of Music, conducting its bands on European Tours. She was a member of the Sioux City Symphony for 30 seasons. The Elkhorn High Student Council named her Outstanding Teacher of the Year in 2002.

Guest Conductor Lauren Milbourn

Lauren Milbourn is Assistant Director of Bands at Millard South High School and teaches beginning band students at Neihardt, Disney, and Hitchcock Elementary Schools. Lauren graduated from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2018, performing as a clarinetist and bass clarinetist in UNO's instrumental music groups and as Drum Major for the Maverick Marching Band. She also is Drum Major for the Nebraska Masonic All-Star Marching Band and is a staff member for the George N. Parks Drum Major Academy. She will participate in the Colorado Boulder Conducting Symposium and the Omaha Symphony's Educator as Maestro clinic with Thomas Wilkins, and this summer will perform with the World Youth Wind Orchestra Project in Schlading, Austria.

Guest Conductor Karen Fannin

Dr. Karen Fannin is Associate Professor, Director of Bands, and Assistant Director of the School of Music at the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Previously she was Director of Bands and Department Chair at Hendrix College in Arkansas, where she conducted the Little Rock Wind Symphony. She is active as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator and has had professional engagements in China, Sweden, Canada and throughout the United States. Her published research topics include pacing in rehearsals and performance, communication in music, and parallels between the ensemble and business. Karen has degrees from the University of Northern Iowa, Northwestern University and the University of Colorado.

Guest Conductor Chris Tucker

Chris Tucker is in her 32nd year with the Gretna Public Schools, serving as Director of Bands at Gretna Middle School and assisting at Gretna High School. Chris received her Bachelor of Music in Education with Highest Distinction and her Master of Music from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. In 1993, Chris was awarded the Jack R. Snider Young Band Director Award. She has presented clinics at both the Nebraska Music Educators Conference and the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association conventions and is a frequent adjudicator for contests and guest conductor and clinician for regional schools and honor band festivals. Chris was Associate Director of the Nebraska Wind Symphony from 2001 to 2012.

Marimbist Analynn Fassler

Analynn Fassler inherited her love of music from her grandmother and mother, who taught her to play the piano and surrounded her with musical instruments. She took clarinet in grade school and then began percussion lessons, enhancing her passion for music in high school and leading to music performance degrees in clarinet and percussion from the University of Arizona. After graduating and realizing she wasn't done learning, Analynn joined the Omaha community and obtained a Master's degree in Percussion Performance from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Analynn has been a substitute performer with the Omaha Symphony, taught African drumming workshops for Visit Omaha, and has been a member of the Nebraska Wind Symphony since 2016.

Guest Emcee Jennifer Griswold

Jennifer Griswold joined the 3 News Now Team in August 2012. She currently anchors the news at 5, 6 and 10 p.m. She describes herself as a Midwesterner down to her core. Jennifer is an Emmy-award winning journalist who came to KMTV from KSTP in Minneapolis-St. Paul, where she worked for more than six years. She started her broadcast career in her home state of Wisconsin. When not working, she enjoys spending time with her husband, their two young children and the family dog.

What IS the Nebraska Wind Symphony?

In September, 1977, Darwyn “Tony” Snyder, right, organized a group of 70 adult musicians and the Nebraska Wind Symphony, Omaha’s Community Concert Band, was born. Tony and others had long recognized the need for a performance outlet for those who had spent years in high school and college band programs and would enjoy and support an organized group with which to play. We celebrate the vision of these founding members whose foresight resulted in establishing the Nebraska Wind Symphony!

The Nebraska Wind Symphony is an adult community band of over 75 adults from a wide variety of vocational backgrounds. For most concert seasons, the NWS performs three formal concerts plus other concerts in a variety of venues. This year there will be THREE free summer outdoor concerts. Reconstruction of the Gene Leahy Mall downtown means there will be no Thanksgiving Night festivities by the Holland Center, so the NWS will instead have a “Holiday Concert” at the Omaha Conservatory of Music on Sunday, December 8. The Nebraska Wind Symphony reaches out to young musicians, offering an annual scholarship and inviting area middle-school “All-Stars” to perform with us each year. Check us out at www.nebraskawindsymphony.com, on Instagram and on Facebook.

From our big production to yours,
here's to another great wind symphony season.

& More! The Swingtones

The Nebraska Wind Symphony Swingtones Big Band was formed in 1983 by trumpeter Mark Foster, consisting of 18 semi-professional musicians mostly from the Nebraska Wind Symphony, with a repertoire that includes big band arrangements in the style of Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Duke Ellington, Harry James, Woody Herman, Les Brown, and many others. Led by Brian Lund, trombone, the band features vocalist Renee Novak Rich.

Throughout the years, this big band has provided dancing and listening entertainment at private parties, dinners, dances, fund-raising events and concerts in the Greater Nebraska/Iowa Area. With more than 230 musical selections in the band's library, including ballads, fox trots, waltzes, polkas, beguines and other Latin numbers, there are lots of choices for dancing. Selections also include 20 big band gospel tunes appropriate for concerts. The NWS Swingtones are available for public and private events. For more information on rates for performances of 1 to 3 hours contact us at:

Support the NWS Memorial Scholarship Fund

The NWS Memorial Scholarship was created in the spring of 2007 to honor past playing members. The award provides financial assistance and encourages continued performance in a college/university band ensemble, which we hope leads to involvement in a band after college.

Consider making a gift of any amount to the NWS Memorial Scholarship Fund to honor an existing playing member or in memory of an NWS member, someone who enjoyed NWS concerts, or simply loved concert band music. Because of increased gifts this past year, we were able to increase the scholarship award from $500 to $1,000.

Your generous support will allow us to continue to grow the scholarship amount to better serve future recipients. Thank you for supporting instrumental music through your financial gifts to NWS.

This Year's NWS Memorial Scholarship Winner: Nestor Pelayo

On July 4 at our concert at SumTur Amphitheater, south of Papillion, meet this year's NWS Memorial Scholarship Winner, Nestor Pelayo, a music education major at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln. Nestor plays the euphonium and is an alum of Lincoln Southwest High. He also plays tuba, trumpet, french horn and percussion, and participates in the UNL Wind Ensemble, the UNL Tuba-Euphonium Ensemble, Men's Varsity Choir, the Cornhusker Marching Band, the Big Red Express Pep Band, and more. A student of Craig Fuller, Nestor is the winner of the 2017 John Shildneck Young Artists Competition. He plans to perform "The Yellow Rose of Texas Variations" by Lewis J. Buckley. Don't miss this!
