Free admission, donations appreciated

Welcome!

to our Winter concert of the 49th Season of the Nebraska Wind Symphony, Omaha's Community Concert Band. We are excited to perform for you today!

In 1977, Darwin "Tony" Snyder, an instrumental music teacher in the Westside School District, saw the need for an organization to provide adults with an instrumental music outlet. His vision proved correct as we continue to present concert band music in our 49th concert season now under the direction of Dr. Joshua Kearney. Today we invite you to experience a diverse selection of works featuring our Middle School All-Stars and NWS Scholarship recipient Benjamin Prentice.

The Nebraska Wind Symphony will be lead by Music Director, Josh Kearney, Associate Music Director, Keith Michael Davis, and guest conductor Larry MacTaggart.

Thank You!

All of this season's concerts are free to the public because of generous donors like you. Thank you for helping us continue to bring great concert band music to the Omaha area! We joyfully recognize these donors for sponsoring this Spring Concert.

Joshua Kearney, Music Director, NWS

Joshua Kearney is Associate Professor and Director of Bands at the University of Nebraska at Omaha. He teaches courses in music education and conducting, directs the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, and oversees all aspects of the UNO band program. In addition to his duties at UNO, Kearney serves as Music Director of the Nebraska Wind Symphony. Kearney began his career as a teacher in the public schools south of Nashville, Tennessee. He has worked as an adjudicator and clinician for ensembles of all levels across the U.S. Additionally, Kearney regularly shares his research and experiences through conference presentations and workshops around the country and abroad.

Kearney earned his Doctor of Musical Arts in Conducting from Michigan State University where he studied with Kevin Sedatole and his Master of Music in Conducting from Columbus State University (GA) where he was a student of Jamie L. Nix. He also earned his Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Columbus State University. Kearney holds affiliations with the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association, Nebraska Music Educators Association, National Association for Music Education, College Music Society, and the College Band Directors National Association. Kearney has served on the Executive Board for the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association and in multiple committee leadership positions in the College Band Directors National Association.

Keith Davis, Associate Music Director, NWS

Keith is a native of Kansas City, Missouri, and has made Omaha his home since 1991. He received his Bachelor of Music in Composition (1988) and Master of Music in Horn Performance (1990) from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music.

Keith has composed music for many instrumental ensembles, but has written mainly for symphonic and concert bands. His commissioned works include “A Western Plains Overture”, “Native Hunters”, “Delicate Survivors of Life’s Mighty Storms”, and “Bastion of Freedom.” He has also done special arrangements for the Wind Symphony, including several holiday selections for our guest vocalists.

Keith has been a playing member of the Nebraska Wind Symphony since 1992 and also serves as the NWS Music Librarian. He is also a playing member with Orchestra Omaha and the Omaha Symphonic Winds. Keith lives in Gretna with his wife, oboist Deanna Davis, and their cat and two dogs.

Larry MacTaggart, Guest Conductor and Composer

Larry MacTaggart spreads the joy of music as a freelance composer and arranger. A graduate of the University of Arkansas (1981) and the University of Nebraska (1983), MacTaggart was director of instrumental music in the Fairbury (Nebraska) public school system from 1983 to 1985. Beginning in September of 1985 through October of 2012, MacTaggart served in the United States Air Force Band Program in as a performer (percussion and drum set) and as a music arranger, eventually becoming the Chief Music Arranger of the USAF Band in Washington DC. In 2007, he transitioned to administrative duties and served as Career Field Manager for all Air Force Bands at The Pentagon. Upon his retirement from active duty in 2012, MacTaggart shifted to a career in Human Resources, working for the Omaha World-Herald and later, for LEO A DALY, an Omaha-based architecture and engineering firm. He retired from Human Resources in December of 2021.

MacTaggart served as the Music Director and Conductor of The Nebraska Wind Symphony on two occasions: 1995-1997 and 2014-2019. He is also an active member of the Papillion Area Concert Band and served on the staff of the Nebraska Ambassadors of Music in 2023. Larry is married to his soul mate, the former Jill Divis, a native of Brainard, NE. They have one amazing daughter, Mallory.

Claire James, Business Manager, NWS

Claire James is a flutist and teacher who is passionate about music's ability to positively impact individual and collective stories. She uses her skills as a creative to find unique ways to foster meaningful connections with music by teaching and performing in her local community. This includes collaboration with musicians and other artists to create innovative and accessible projects, usually hosted in non-traditional and local spaces, and music education. You can see what she is up to on her social media: @ClaireJamesFlute or website: ClaireJamesFlute.com.

Claire holds a Master's of Music from the University of Nebraska at Omaha where she studied under the instruction of Dr. Christine Beard. Claire holds an undergraduate diploma from Longy School of Music where she studied with Sergio Pallottelli. Claire may be reached via email at: businessmanager@nebraskawindsymphony.com.

Benjamin Prentice, Trombone Soloist

Benjamin Prentice is a senior at University of Nebraska at Kearney pursuing a degree in PreK-12 Music Education. He has studied trombone under Dr. Robert Benton, and been an active participant and leader in UNK ensembles such as the Wind Ensemble, Jazz/Rock Band, Pride of the Plains Marching Band, and Archway Brass Quintet. Benjamin graduated from Wray, CO, where he was a leader in the band program and received the John Philip Sousa award. Aside from music, Benjamin loves being involved in campus ministry and church.

Deb Lund, Middle School All-Stars Coordinator

Deb grew up on a farm near Arlington, SD and started playing saxophone in 6th grade. After earning a BA in Music Education and a minor in Spanish, she taught music in two small towns in South Dakota, before helping to found a new band program, Music in Catholic Schools for the Omaha Archdiocese. She was the MCS Administrator and band teacher for 41 years. Her husband Brian also has a music education degree, is a retired IT engineer, and plays trombone with NWS. They have 3 adult children, all married, and all play wind instruments. Rebecca, an ELCA pastor, and her husband Rich live in Long Island, NY, with their two daughters, Erin and Grace. Andrew and his wife Andreea, both software engineers, live in Lørenskog, Norway with their 3-year-old son Mark. Josh, instrument repair specialist, and wife Shelby live in Omaha. In addition to music activities, Deb volunteers at Lakeside Hospital and Nebraska Cancer Specialists, leads Tai Chi, is active at her church, gardens, walks, bakes, and keeps busy with home projects.

What is the Nebraska Wind Symphony?

In September 1977, Darwyn "Tony" Snyder organized a group of 70 adult musicians and the Nebraska Wind Symphony, Omaha's Community Concert Band, was born. Tony and others had long recognized the need for a performance outlet for those who had spent years in high school and college band programs and would enjoy and support an organized group with which to play. We celebrate the vision of our founding members with each new concert season.
